Hazard Levels

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Low Hazard (U.S.A.)</th>
<th>High Hazard (U.S.A.)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>No hazard</td>
<td>Moderate Hazard</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Low Hazard</td>
<td>High Hazard</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Severe Hazard</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

No hazard
- Bathroom only and no hose bibbs
- Customer with hose bibbs
- Customer with hose bibbs

- Attorney’s office
- Dry goods store
- Insurance office
- Mortgage company
- Psychiatrist/Psychologist
- Small real estate office
- Etc.

Low Hazard
- Commercial zoning
- Professional zoning
- Fire protection system (no chemical additives)
- Hotels
- Schools
- Take out restaurant (no dishwasher or can wash station)
- Etc.

Moderate Hazard
- Potentially dangerous

High Hazard
- Actually dangerous

- Attorney’s office
- Dry goods store
- Insurance office
- Mortgage company
- Psychiatrist/Psychologist
- Small real estate office
- Etc.

Severe Hazard
- Industrial zoning
- Chemical plant
- Fire protection system (toxic chemical additives)
- Plating plant
- Wastewater plant
- Etc.

Protection
- None
- DCVA or Testable RDC
- RP or DCVA
- RP
- Air Gap

---

University of Florida TREEO Center

7/31/2008